

FEBRUARY & MARCH 2012

Welcome to our latest Newsletter, we hope you find it informative and interesting. Please take note of our up and coming dates, we hope the children enjoy taking part in the various activities. Please contact your co-ordinator directly for further details. Thank you to all of you who returned your completed evaluation forms, we were very interested to read your replies. Congratulations to Victoria Peat who won the bottle of champagne in the prize draw .

Children's House Montessori carried out lots of lovely Christmas activities. Santa's visit was mostly a success! They also went on a trip into town to look at the Christmas decorations and choose some Christmas books. Follow them on TWITTER @childrenshouse7

Hazles Farm had their annual visit by Father Christmas in spectacular style. RAF Shawbury kindly agreed to help Father Christmas at his busiest time of the year. He was welcomed by Clare Holland, the nursery co-ordinator and handed out presents to some very excited children.

Funfactory had fun over the Christmas hols with lots of activities & games. Feb half term booking forms available soon!

Sunflower have been playing games to learn about body and movement. Here are the Pre-school children playing the parachute game. Sunflower Babies & Toddlers have been having a messy time exploring with shredded paper.

Congratulations to nursery nurse Katy Hughes on the safe arrival of baby Noel on the 15th December.

Hazles Farm Childcare have been successfully raising money for charity during the last few months. £291.45 was raised for Children In Need across all sites and Sunflower raised £47 for Beep Beep. Congratulations to all the sites involved and many thanks to all who gave so generously.

Hazles Farm Pre-school's theme for this term is Dinosaurs, please can parents help with books, toys & models etc. Forest Schools sessions are taking place fortnightly on Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday and started on 10th January.

Good fun was had by all when Bluebell visited Father Christmas at the Indoor Market.
